II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

☐ Federal question

☐ Diversity of citizenship

Fill out the paragraphs in this section that apply to this case.

A. If the Basis for Jurisdiction Is a Federal Question

(If more than one defendant is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional defendant.)

3. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

see Attachment

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

III Statement of claim

①

I was in Pittsburg County Jail, under the custody of United States Marshal Service. The nurse, Doris Crawford, gave me the wrong medication for 8 days in a row. I documented this numerous times on the jail's electronic request to staffs. I documented it to the nurse, the chief of security, Jeff Daniels, the jail administrator, the under sheriff and the Sheriff. I did not know until later that the sheriff, the under sheriff, and the chief of security do not receive these electronic requests. When the jail administrator told the sheriff about the situation, the sheriff told the chief of security to pull me from my cell and have the nurse apologise to me. The chief of security did pull me from my cell to the nurses office. She did then apologise and explained to me that it will never happen again. I told them that when I 8-19-21 got to federal prison I was going to sue and they both said "Good Luck" Please retrieve my electronic request to staffs from the jail. It is all documented on them. Donald Logsdon

Statement of Claim

After they said good luck, Loyd London asked me what I wanted to eat the next day for breakfast. He said he was buying McDonalds for me. I told him breakfast burritos and orange juice. The next morning he had an officer pull me from my cell to take me up front to booking. Loyd London handed me a McDonalds sack with 4 burritos in it and a orange juice. He said "now we're even for her mistake." I never said anything. I just ate the burritos and drank the orange juice. I have a witness who will testify to the facts of this. Dennis Cantrell seen me eating the food and was in the cell with me thruout the time the nurse gave me the wrong meds. Every day I showed him the little yellow pill and I would say "Look, she did it again." - ~~END~~

Statement of Claim

The nurse at Pittsburg County Jail Refused to let me get any kind of pain medication. Even after the USMS approved me for Pain Management. Doris allowed the doctor to prescribe me Gabapentin for my pain. Gabapentin is not even approved by the F.D.A. for pain. I started out on 300 mg. 1X per day. When it wasn't working she had the doctor bump me all the way up to 800 mg 3X per day. That still didn't work. If you read all my electronic request to staffs and medical requests, you will see that I put in numerous of both trying to get some pain relief.

Statement of Claim

I have had to go to the emergency room 10 times within the last year due to pain. It got to where the nurse at the jail wouldn't let me go to the hospital. She would refuse me medical attention. Read all my electronic request to staffs and medical requests and you will see all of this.

Statement of Claim

④

I am not sure of the exact dates of any of my claims, as when I tried to get copies of each of my 150+ medical requests and request to staffs, I was told to have an attorney try to get them for me if I want to file a lawsuit. If you read my electronic request to staffs you will see this response.
